

Piano Teacher(s)

WollCon is currently seeking experienced Piano Teacher/s to join the teaching staff at this leading Regional Conservatorium. The successful candidate/s will have the opportunity to teach a significant portfolio of students.

The role will be focussed on one-to-one studio teaching whilst liaising with colleagues in the Piano Faculty as well as other WollCon staff to ensure students take advantage of opportunities to perform at WollCon events.

The Piano Faculty at WollCon prides itself on the quality of its teaching, its ability to embrace student's varied musical interests and different stages of development. It has a high level of success with students opting for formal examinations. Adult learners and beginners all benefit from the expertise of our Piano Teachers.

What the successful applicant will require:

- At least a Bachelor's degree in music/music education or significant and demonstrable professional experience in teaching/music education (5-10 years)
- Recent experience in teaching Piano to students.
- Passion and enthusiasm for music, including a passion for encouraging students of all abilities.
- A commitment to a long-term relationship with students to provide strong continuity of music education.
- Experience in teaching students of all levels - beginners to advanced
- Knowledge of recent developments in the theory and practice of music that specifically applies to teaching Piano.
- Knowledge and experience in teaching the AMEB syllabus (or similar) and preparing students for performances including HSC, when required.
- Outstanding interpersonal skills and the ability to work collaboratively with the rest of the WollCon music staff.
- Confidence in the use of technology and a willingness to embrace it to enhance communication and learning.
- An understanding of and willingness to embrace WollCon's vision and values.

Who are we?
